

BRACKETT BLOCKED IN PLAN AIMED AT CITY ON REPRESENTATION

Majority in Convention Against
"No-More-Than-Half" Scheme.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 24.—After a two hours' debate that at times was marked by bitterness, the Root-Wickham-Stimson forces of the Constitutional Convention scored their first victory to-day over the Brackett-Quigg-K. H. Smith insurgents on the question of reapportionment. Without coming to a record vote the Root adherents forced an indefinite postponement of consideration of the Brackett-Quigg resolution intended to provide for a change in the present form of the Legislature and fixed next Wednesday as the time for consideration of the question whether New York City shall be permitted to have more than half the representation in the Legislature.

AN EASY WAY TO GET RID OF UGLY PIMPLES

Bathe your face for several minutes with resinal soap and hot water, then apply a little resinal ointment very gently. Let this stay on ten minutes, and wash off with resinal soap and more hot water, finishing with a dash of cold water to close the pores. Do this once or twice a day, and you will be astonished to find how quickly the healing resinal medication soothes and cleanses the pores, removes pimples and blackheads, and leaves the complexion clear and velvety.

Resinal ointment and resinal soap—top itching instantly and speedily heal skin humors, sores, burns, wounds and chafing. Sold by all druggists.—Advt.

During the debate Lemuel E. Quigg severely criticized the convention for what he termed "the general disposition of the members to postpone everything."

Postponement of the Brackett-Quigg resolution was obtained after its opponents had pointed out that it merely called for the vote of the convention on an academic question.

The question was proposed in concrete form, they maintained, in a proposed amendment presented by the Legislative Powers Committee, of which Brackett is Chairman and Quigg and Smith members. It is designed to provide that there shall be no apportionment by the Legislature until 1926 and that New York City cannot have more than half the legislative representatives.

They also assert that consideration of this will automatically bring about a settlement of whether the present form of the Legislature shall be changed. In addition they declare that the advocates of reapportionment are planning to attempt to have the convention make a reapportionment amendment block future reapportionments until 1926.

Two Men Arrested at Belmont
Track Held in $5000 Bail for Trial in September.

Charles Jandorf and Willis Pratt, both of this city, who were arrested at the Belmont Park racetrack on May 29, charged with making books on the races, and who were indicted by the Grand Jury, appeared before County Judge James P. Niemann in his chambers in the court house at Mineola after the close of court and entered plea of not guilty to the indictments. They gave bail in the sum of $500 each for trial. Bail had been $250. Judge Niemann raised it $250 and each deposited the extra cash to cover the bond. They will be tried in September.

SUFFRAGISTS ATTEMPT TO BREAK UP MEETING

Heckle Speakers and Defy Freeport Policemen to Stop Their Free Speech.

FREETPORT, L. I., June 24.—Four policemen were stationed in Brooklyn Hall last night to keep order at a mass meeting conducted by anti-suffragists. It was a good move on the part of Chief Lamb, whose wife is a strong suffrage advocate for women, as is the chief. The suffragists invaded the meeting. The anti's had not progressed far when the suffs demonstrated that they were on hand for business. Questions were fired at the speakers indiscriminately and they were visibly disturbed.

Policeman Dunbar urged the suffragists to show respect to the anti's, but they told him they thought they had a right to ask questions of those who assailed their cause.

Despite the noisy demonstration by the suffs and their heckling questions, the anti's stuck to their posts and kept the meeting going.

GOV. WHITMAN IS HERE.
Chief Executive Comes to Attend
Flag Raising.

Gov. Whitman came to New York this morning on the Albany night boat and went to the Hotel St. Regis, where he will remain until Saturday.

The chief object of his trip is to attend the flag exercises at the City Hall. The Governor denied that he had any engagement to meet Martin T. Manton, counsel for Charles Becker. He refused to discuss the forthcoming election of a District Attorney he asked about the chances of Tammany endorsing Charles A. Perkins.

ESCAPED FROM SUBMARINE.
Skipper Tells How He Fought One
That Fired Shells at Him.

MONTREAL, June 24.—Capt. I. Olsen of the British steamship Teespool, in to-day from Barry, England, told how he felled a German submarine that stopped his ship and began firing shells at it from the surface.

"When the shells started falling around the ship," said Capt. Olsen, "I turned her around so that her beam was with the waves and then called for full speed ahead. The submarine followed, but, as she rolled so heavily in the trough of the sea, the German gunners could not aim their guns."

ACQUITTED IN ITALY OF MURDER HERE

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 24.—Francesco Imbriani Giuseppe Filoramo, charged with the murder of Charles Hayes and the wounding of Patrick F. Campbell in the famous Portage hold-up of 1904, have been acquitted in Messina, Italy. News of the acquittal has been received from the American Embassy in Rome. P. F. Campbell, who was paymaster for the Puritan Coal Mining Company and from whom $2,000 was stolen in the hold-up, went to Italy in 1908 and testified against Imbriani and Filoramo. The case had not been concluded when the Messina earthquake of December, 1908, destroyed the prison and Imbriani and Filoramo escaped. They were later recaptured, but much of the evidence secured during the first trial had been destroyed.
